DiSalle Veto On Road Money Bill Overridden

Local Governments To Get Additional Street, Road Funds

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Democratic Gov. Michael V. DiSalle finally has "had it" from the Republican-controlled legislature — after 4½ months.

With the help of 23 members of the governor's own party—19 in the House and in the Senate—the GOP has overridden a DiSalle veto of a bill to take about $15 million a year from the Ohio Highway Department and give it to local governments for street and road financing.

The Senate vote was 24-14 (23 needed) and in the House, which took it up first, it was 100-35 (84 needed).

DeSalle has vetoed three bills. No attempted ever was made to override a veto on a jobless pay bill. Consideration of trying to override this week's veto of a bill on the voting rights of servicemen who intend to make Ohio their home still is pending.

All the Democrats who voted Tuesday to override DiSalle's veto of the bill to spread $15 million over Ohio's cities, counties and townships are from Cuyahoga County (Cleveland) with five exceptions.

They are Sen. Arthur Blake, D-Belmont, one of DiSalle's outspoken critics in his own party, and Reps. Thomas P. Gilmartin, D - Mahoning; Luther Mylander, D-Ottawa; Virtus J. Kruse, D-Fayette, and Arnold Potts, D-Putnam.

Arguments were the same as those when the bill originally was passed by both houses. Democrats argued the state would not be able to match federal highway spending. Republicans contended the state highway department would have plenty of money, even without the $15 million a year.

House Speaker Roger Cloud, R-Logan, took the unusual step during debate of surrendering the speaker's rostrum to House Majority Leader Robert Taft Jr., R-Hamilton, so Cloud could participate in the discussion.

Upshot of the matter—an action pledged by Republicans in their 1960 state platform — is to give local governments every penny of the money collected from motor vehicle license fees.

The $15 million in question, which now is returned to local governments beginning next Jan. 1, was used to help finance operations of the Ohio Department of Highway Safety, including the Bureau of Motor Vehicles and Highway Patrol. Republicans propose to finance the department from other highway revenues, particularly the last two cents of the gasoline tax.

GOP to Hear Kazmayer on Wednesday

Robert Kazmayer, business analyst and publisher of the newsletter, "Things to Watch and Watch For" will address Columbiana County Republican party workers at a dinner meeting to be held at the Memorial Building next Wednesday evening.

The dinner will be sponsored by the Salem Men's Republican Club, but tickets will be available to the general public. E. U. Whitacre, chairman of the Salem Men's Republican Club, is in charge of arrangements.

Kazmayer's subject will be "Where Are We Now?" which is expected to be a review of the first four months of President Kennedy's Democratic Administration. At present Dr. Kazmayer is on a short fact-finding tour in Europe and also North Africa.

In addition to Chairman E. U. Whitacre, others working on the arrangements and promotion of the dinner meeting are Richard Cobourn, vice chairman of the Salem Men's Republican Club, Lewis Raymond, secretary, and Wesley Houger, treasurer. Members of the Executive Committee making arrangements are T. Emerson Smith, Dr. George Jones, C. Robert Conroy, Lloyd Gordon, James Criswell, Lozier Caplan, and George Perrault.

Answers Democratic Chairman

Preston Promises Rt. 62 Job Review

State Highway Director Everett S. Preston told Columbiana County Democratic Chairman Don R. Gosney today that the merits of the proposal for relocating U. S. Route 62 south of Salem will be reviewed thoroughly before any final decision is made.

The letter was in reply to one written by Mr. Gosney late last week in which the county Democratic party chairman expressed concern over a proposal by Highway Division 4 to build a joint Rts. 62, 224 and 14 facility near Alliance and North Benton.

Director Preston said:

"Your letter of May 11 indicates a very sincere and understandable interest and concern in the ultimate location of Route 62. I have also read the May 8 editorial in The Salem News on the same subject.

"Please be assured that although the report from Division 4 has been received, further investigation is being made in order to provide additional information before reaching a final determination on the location of Route 62. You may be confident that the merits of the proposal for locating Route 62 south of Salem will be reviewed most thoroughly before any final decision is made. I believe this to be consistent with what was stated by representatives of this Department, Messers. Neeper, Shultz, and Wallace, during their visit with Columbiana County officials April 12.

"I am pleased to receive your reaction and thinking on this matter. Since the effect of all highways is local in nature, local opinion regarding their location is very much appreciated. Your opposition to House Bill 49 is also appreciated. It certainly is unfortunate that your two State Representatives are voting otherwise."

The Salem Area Chamber of Commerce has been spearheading a campaign to keep Rt. 62 in Columbiana County by having it relocated south of Salem instead of north. The County Mayors Association and many civic and farm groups in the county also have endorsed the southern route.

Control of Seoul Solidified by Junta

SEOUL, South Korea (AP)—Lt. Gen. Chang Do-young's military junta solidified its control of Seoul today as most of the country apparently maintained a passive attitude toward the coup.

Gen. Chang's revolutionary committee named a temporary cabinet made up of 24 generals, colonels and lieutenant colonels to run the government.

The junta also assembled six members of Premier John M. Chang's cabinet for a meeting in an apparent attempt to give a semblance of legal transfer of power. But Premier Chang and nine other cabinet members were in hiding, and it seemed unlikely that any transfer of power by a cabinet minority—all of whom had been under detention—could be considered legal.

The junta previously had issued a decree disbanding the national assembly.

The junta took command of the national and Seoul police, whose members clashed briefly with the rebel troops that seized control of Seoul before dawn Tuesday. Brig. Gen. Cho Houng-man, a former provost marshal, was named to head the National Police and Col. Lee Kwang became Seoul police director.

New police directors also were named for the eight provinces.

With Seoul quiet and the junta in control of the police, most of the estimated 3,600 troops that had entered the capital Tuesday withdrew to the suburbs. But machine gun posts remained at several key intersections and tanks were deployed on a hill overlooking the city.

U.S. Gen. Carter Magruder, the U.N. commander in Korea, tried to minimize the effect of the coup with a statement Tuesday night that it appeared to have little public support. But no open opposition was reported from outside Seoul and Chang's forces continued to claim control of the en-

E. Liverpool Officer Found Not Guilty

LISBON — A Common Pleas Court jury of three men and nine women Tuesday afternoon returned a verdict of not guilty in the trial of former Lt. Thomas Walker of the East Liverpool police department, who had been indicted by the April Grand Jury for the theft of a $127.50 television set from Chief A. J. Radeschi's office last Feb. 11.

The set was being held for evidence.

Lt. Walker had been suspended without pay for 30 days for taking the TV set and lending it to Mrs. Audre Demoratz of East Liverpool.

In charging the jury Tuesday afternoon, Judge Raymond S. Buzzard said the jury would have to decide whether Lt. Walker stole the set or merely borrowed it as he and supporting witnesses claimed. The jury deliberated almost two hours.

Overpass Job Faces Delay, Mayor Reports

State Letter Read To City Council; Cruiser Funds OK'd

The city's efforts to have a W. State St. overpass built in the immediate future were stymied last night when it was revealed to City Council that the state will delay the project some three years.

Council received the news of the overpass situation in a letter read by Mayor Dean Cranmer which he had recently received from State Highway Director Everett Preston.

In his letter Preston said, "The volume of highway and railroad traffic makes this crossing worthy of consideration for the separation of grades. Negotiations with the railroad company and the development of plans for a project of such magnitude could not be progressed to construction in the next fiscal biennium. We, therefore, propose to include the project in our 1964-65 biennium program."

Mayor Cranmer told Council that he was highly displeased at the action taken by the state in regards to the proposed delay in the grade crossing plans. The mayor said he was going to schedule a meeting with Preston in Columbus to see if the decision could not be changed yet.

Cruiser Funds Alloted

In other action, Council passed an ordinance appropriating $3,183 from the Capital Improvements Fund for the purchase of two 1961 police cruisers. The amount was stipulated to be $1,393 for a 1961 Chevrolet police cruiser and $1,790 for a 1961 Ford cruiser.

Contracts for purchase of the two cruisers have been awarded to the Parker Chevrolet Co. and Bud Shaffer Ford Inc., both of Salem, with delivery of the cars expected soon.

Council also passed an ordinance authorizing the employment of Squire, Sanders & Dempsey, law counsellors of Cleveland, to prepare proceedings necessary for the renewal of the $90,000 off-street parking note.

The ordinance states that it shall go into immediate effect since the renewal of the note is due June 1. The ordinance also stipulates that services of the law counsellors shall not exceed $150.

Two Councilmen Absent

Due to the absence of Council President Michael Schuller and Fourth Ward Councilman Ralph Zimmerman last night, the legislators were unable to take further action on a resolution declaring it necessary to improve Columbia St. between S. Broadway and S. Lincoln Ave.

According to City Solicitor Scott McCorkhill, a resolution of necessity requires the approval of three-quarters of Council before it can be passed. Therefore, since President Pro Tem Carl Abe had assumed the duties of president of Council last night, it left only five voting members, or not enough to consider the Columbia St. resolution. The resolution was tabled for a special meeting of Council May 23.

The resolution in question seeks the approval of Council to deem it necessary to improve Columbia St. from S. Broadway to S. Lincoln Ave. by applying two and one-half inches of asphalt con-

JFK Optimistic On Economy

Believes Recovery Is Solidly Based

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy has ruled out any massive spending efforts or income tax cuts to speed the reviving U.S. economy.

Kennedy has told Democratic congressional leaders he is going along with a group of his economic advisers who believe the recovery is solidly based despite a hard core of unemployment.

Some of the President's advisers are convinced that Kennedy's programs for housing, aid to education, highway construction, Social Security expansion, depressed areas and agriculture will give the economy's climb sufficient impetus.

There is a frank difference of opinion among his advisers, however. Some contend the recovery bears signs of weakness that can only be overcome by increased government spending or by tax cuts.

This group argued that even though factory sales and personal incomes showed gains, steel production remained at only about 68 per cent of capacity and little progress had been made in reducing unemployment.

But Kennedy, described as much more optimistic about the economy than he was a couple of months ago, overruled these arguments.

Rusk Charges Truce Violation

Asks Withdrawal of Troops From Laos

GENEVA (AP)—U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk today demanded the withdrawal of all military forces from troubled Laos and charged the Communists are violating the cease-fire there.

Rusk told the East-West foreign ministers' conference on Laos that the United States is willing to pull out its military mission from Laos if Communist North Viet Nam does the same.

Offers Three-Point Plan

Rusk offered the conference a three-point plan to turn Laos into a neutral country removed from the pressures of the cold war so it can make "progress toward more stable political institutions, economic well-being and social justice."

In calling for Laotian neutrality, Rusk insisted that absolutely all foreign military personnel should be withdrawn.

"There is no problem about the withdrawal of the limited U.S. military personnel assisting with the training and supply of government forces," Rusk said. But he insisted that the Communists from North Viet Nam who have been assisting the rebels must also leave the country.

He said the United States does not want to see Laos "as a staging area or as a thoroughfare for agents of subversion, saboteurs or guerrilla bands to operate against Laos' neighbors."

Rusk called for effective inter-

Firm's $29,000 Error Is Columbiana's Gain

COLUMBIANA — A $29,000 error in the village's favor — and one which the company has agreed to honor — made village councilmen happy to authorize the Board of Public Affairs last night to sign a contract with the Westinghouse Electric Supply Co. of Youngstown for furnishing a unit substation for the village electrical distribution system.

The firm, one of six which bid on the new substation, pegged its offer at $88,200, lowest by far. The board already had opened the bids and recommended acceptance of the Youngstown company's offer before the firm caught the error.

When the status of the contract was determined, Westinghouse agreed to absorb the $29,000 since state laws regarding contracts let by municipalities permit no changes once a bid has been submitted.

The expensive oversight in the bid was in the section dealing with certain transformers. Two are called for in the specifications, but Westinghouse quoted only a single unit price in that section, so Columbiana will receive two for the price of one.

In another action, Council referred back to the Planning Commission a suggested amendment to the zoning ordinance that would prohibit further installation of mobile homes — or house trailers — within the municipal boundaries. The commission will set a date for a public hearing on the proposal.

Mayor E. L. Calvin said there are now 35 to 40 mobile homes in the community and added that the commission fears a "rush" of additional trailers because of tightening restrictions in nearby areas such as Beaver Township and Canfield.

Diefenbaker, Kennedy Meet On Aims of Trip

Ottawa Crowds Give President Warm Reception

OTTAWA (AP)—President Kennedy met today with Canada's Prime Minister John G. Diefenbaker to outline what the United States expects of its neighbor by way of helping protect Latin America and other areas from Communist designs.

The two leaders left behind the pageantry of the President's state visit for a brass tacks discussion of the aims of the Kennedy trip. Those are known to include a request for Canadian money and moral support to help shore up Latin-American nations.

Indication of Balk

There were indications that Canada would balk.

Kennedy and Diefenbaker went into their huddle in the prime minister's office after the President had laid a wreath at the base of Canada's National War Memorial.

Prior to that, Kennedy had talked briefly with U.S. Embassy employes and told them they served not only their country but the cause of freedom.

About 200 members of the embassy staff and their families packed the small marble-walled lobby of the embassy office building opposite Ottawa's Parliament to hear the chief executive.

Kennedy drove from Government House, where he and Mrs. Kennedy are staying, to the embassy building in an open car. He wore a black topcoat and carried a hat, but did not put the hat on for the 10-minute ride on a sunny, but chilly, morning.

School children waved and cheered as Kennedy and U.S. Ambassador Livingston T. Merchant drove by.

15,000 Greet President

From the embassy building, Kennedy drove a short block to the memorial in Confederation Square. A throng of applauding Canadians — estimates ranged around 15,000—greeted the President.

Royal China Leases Plant At Palestine

EAST PALESTINE — The Royal China Co. of Sebring has leased the local Plant No. 1 of the W. S. George Pottery to handle surplus production.

Miss Beatrice Miller, president of Royal, said she hoped to employ as many as 200 persons locally by July 1.

The George Pottery here has been idle for several months and on a limited production basis for almost a year. The firm was reorganized in 1958 after a $350,000 loan was obtained from the Small Business Administration. The SBA has approved the new lease arrangement.

At a meeting of the East Palestine Chamber of Commerce last night, C. E. Brittain and M. J. Cappozzi, both officials of the George Pottery, reported "apparent successful conclusion" of the lease negotiations by the busy Sebring company..

Local idle pottery workers have volunteered to come to the plant and begin clean-up operations.

Washington Watching Korea Events With Deep Concern

WASHINGTON (AP) — Officials here are watching events in Korea with extreme concern, but have declined to issue any statement beyond saying that the situation is "unclear."

President Kennedy, now in Canada, is keeping in close touch with the State Department on events in Korea. Before he left he called Walter P. McConaughy, former U.S. ambassador to Korea and now assistant secretary to the Far East, to the White House for consultations.

U.S. military and embassy representatives in Seoul have called upon Koreans to support the government of Premier John M. Chang, and have claimed that only a small part of the Korean army took part in Tuesday's coup.

Officials here have said that such statements are within the scope of authority of the U.S. representatives in Korea, but they have cautiously refrained from subscribing to them.

The reason for this—having U.S. officials in Seoul making strong statements and officials here making cautious ones—is not lack of information, because the State Department is in constant communication with the embassy in Seoul.

The reason is that although the junta in Korea claims full control of the government and the country it may not be able to hold onto that power. This depends on several factors.

One is what the 600,000 man army does. Reports reaching here indicate only about 4,000 soldiers took part in the coup.

Another is what the students do. The high school and university students are Korea's intelligentsia, and have a strong influence on the people. Last year it was the students who toppled the government of strongman Syngman Rhee. If they support the junta, its success is likely. If they oppose it, Chang's return would be possible.

The United States, which has poured aid into South Korea as a bulwark against the Communist tide, has no desire to see Korea's democratic institutions founder. Neither has it any desire to antagonize a new regime which — despite the fact that it seized control by force—has emphatically stated its desire to cooperate with the West.

Thus, if the junta succeeds in holding onto its power, the high echelon of the State Department will not be on record as having opposed it — despite the statements of U.S. officials in Korea.

Policeman's Lot Never Happy

Another surge of joy and comfort presumably has suffused Americans because their government has promised to keep on doing its duty for the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

U.S. troops will be kept on duty in Germany. U.S. resources will back up any effort that may be called for to keep the Soviet Union from driving the Western Powers out of Berlin. There will be no cutbacks.

Polaris submarines will be assigned to attack duty if any member of NATO is attacked, thereby firming up a promise made by the Eisenhower Administration. They will be under U.S. command, to be sure, and there is no guarantee they will not be under heavy disapproval by other NATO members, but they will cover their beats and be ready for use if NATO needs them.

The United States will support the idea of German reunification, though there is no prospect of such an eventuality, either by vote or by seizure. This was the central purpose of John Foster Dulles when he was secretary of state.

And it will underwrite the doctrine of a common defense by the North Atlantic nations against possible attack by the Soviet Union, though everything in recent years has pointed to evidence that the burden of defense would fall entirely on the United States that the military decline of European nations has reduced them to a state of mental as well as physical dependency for their own defense.

There is a question of their will to stand and fight in a showdown, because their politicians do not see the issue between the United States and the Soviet Union as the same black-and-white contrast it appears to be in the two countries.

Nevertheless, the role of the United States, like the role of a policeman, has been determined by what needs to be done, not by the agreeableness of doing it.

Somebody always has had to be the world's policeman, and today it's the United States. The policeman's lot is not a happy one, but it never was. He gets hurt if trouble starts. He wears himself out trying to avert trouble. And if trouble starts, he looks in vain for friends to help him. He simply does his duty.

Before It's Too Late

With inmates being added to Ohio's prison population faster than they can be taken care of properly, Maury C Koblentz, state correction commissioner, has asked for special attention to the problem of crime in the state.

Many recent commitments to penal institutions, he believes, can be explained by the economic decline. It is the familiar pattern of desperation and idleness that causes idle hands to find mischief.

But the economic decline will pass. Commissioner Koblentz believes there needs to be a better permanent approach to crime prevention at the community level. He thinks crime prevention has been grossly neglected in U.S. communities.

He thinks there also has been neglect of research in prison methods. Penal officials do not actually know whether they are on the right track in their handling of prisoners.

But these projects would need to be started at the level of officialdom.

A third project could be started at the level of ordinary living—curfew regulations. This is something Ohio's correction commissioner thinks every city should have in effect. "You've got to get these kids off the streets," he declares. "If kids are permitted to roam after normal hours, they're going to get into trouble."

Yet, few cities have curfews. The difficulty is not with the principle but with enforcement. Any policeman can tell the difference between a juvenile who is obviously on his way home from a party and a juvenile who isn't on his way home from anywhere. But once a curfew has been put in effect, everybody subject to the curfew must be treated the same.

The fact is that family curfews are commonplace and that families which enforce them do not need to fear middle-of-the-night calls from the police. And the further fact is that if every family made a practice of knowing where its children were after 11 p.m. the crime rate would drop dramatically.

For families that depend on the police to solve all problems, there could be the same advantages of a curfew if their neglected children knew that every policeman who spotted them after 11 p.m. would be looking them over for signs of trouble.

Events In Korea

With no apology for the way they feel about it, many Americans are full of misgivings about their government's position on a military uprising in Korea. It will uphold the Korean government, and Americans wonder what it will use to do the upholding.

They are fearful of strong positions taken in countries the United States cannot dominate by force—and that excludes every country the United States is trying to help. They understand why America's spokesmen have to stand behind constitutionally established regimes, but they do not understand why it is necessary to take untenable positions.

It would seem, in view of what happened to Syngman Rhee after so many years of U.S. support, that if a mob of undisciplined students could oust Rhee it should be no trick for the Korean army to pull the rug from under a much weaker successor, John Chang.

Without being guilty of doing anything to weaken Chang, the United States surely could be sure it did nothing to weaken itself if the time had come for Chang to step down.

Perhaps Chang is right, but in the turbulent politics of nations that wait for the next dominant force to assert itself explosively, being right is not as important as being the top dog when the fur flies.

Americans are growing weary of being right and losing. They are not sure that their spokesmen always have the God-given gift of knowing in every situation what is right.

Local Issue

Something never clear before is becoming clear now:

Federal aid to education tulimately is a local issue, just as they used to say the tariff was. Wherever school districts pay their own way and take their education responsibility to heart, there is no sentiment for federal aid.

But wherever school districts have been unwilling to vote the taxes and make the effort to give themselves decent schools, there is red-hot sentiment for federal aid.

In these places, federal aid looks like a chance to clip someone else for part of the cost of education—to drain off money from progressive communities into backward communities—to penalize some people for the benefit of others.

All this is covered up by talk about teacher salaries, classroom shortages, poor education programs and so on. But conditions would still be a disgrace after federal aid has been spread thin over all the inadequacies. Things might even get worse, because once the "gimme" school districts had tasted federal money their voters would dream of letting someone else support them 100 per cent.

Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Days after Washington reception to Cmdr. Shepard, the picture of his sister Polly stands out in memory of millions. With nation yearning for gusto, warmth and exuberance in traditional welcome - home manner, it was Polly, down from North Attleboro, Mass., who alone gave the proper emotional boost to proceedings, as she leaped to her feet, full of joy and pride, held her hands over head in a gesture of victory and seemed to cry out, "Dignity! Restraint! Coolheadedness! Who needs 'em this day of days?"

There was the mood of "What a day!" "Everybody sing!" and "This is not a funeral wake; let's whoop it up!" in her brief, vibrant, wholly natural reaction and it wowed Washington attendants, all TV watchers and even "Shep" himself, whose broad smile showed appreciation.

Looking back, it will seem to most folks that it was a sort of Ladies Day, since the gals easily stole show from politicians, diplomats and even from the President, who appeared extra casual.

Another woman, the hero's wife, was a standout on TV. Few Hollywood stars could top her in beauty, and it was the beauty of a naturally charming lady, free from affectation and completely lacking the manufactured, artificial, carefully preserved touch.

Hers was the beauty of the radiant in spirit. (You know why Cmdr. Shepard went up and came back. Who could fail? With a gal like that who needs instrumentation?)

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE Commission has ruled off big brokerage house for alleged violation of stock market rules. Okay, if it doesn't add the phrase in small type "While we believe this action to be in all seriousness, this does not guarantee alertness or determination. For further details consult the prospectus."

Mrs. Vivienne Nearing pleaded guilty to perjury in denying she got answers in "Twenty One" quiz and judge freed her, saying she had suffered enough. We think hizzoner came up with correct answer and we wouldn't say "Sorry, judge, but you're wrong. Thank you for coming."

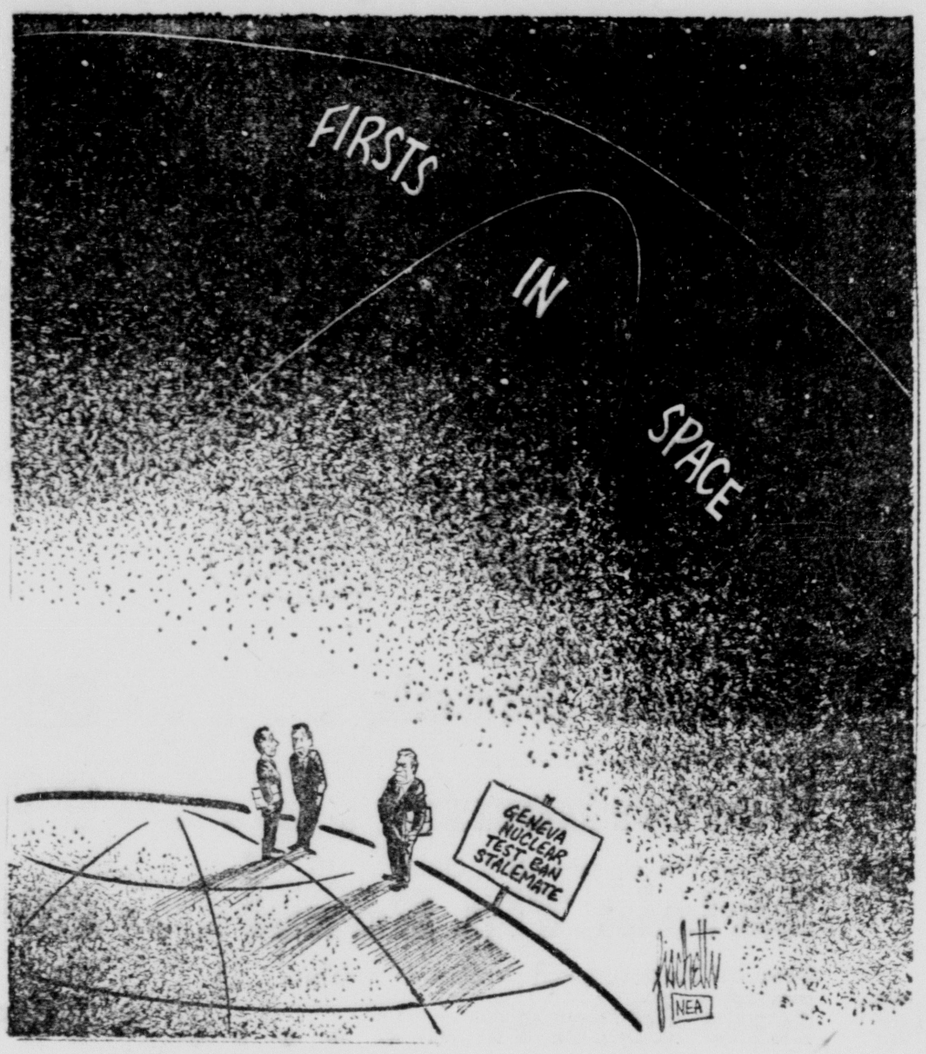

In our book the real culprits were the program folks who conceived the dirty work and executed it with plenty of power and a complete disregard of public faith. (Any of 'em in the hoosegow yet?)

Castro is reported seizing Cuban yacht, golf, fishing and business clubs, also taking over many private beaches. Maybe a sunburn is held to be imperialistic.

President Truman got a rocking chair on his birthday. But it is not an Off-the-Cuff model and will not go around the block.

Bronx Zoo has been closed by strike for over a month. Animals are reported to miss people. Seals probably suffer most, as they are the ham actors of all species. Monkeys are reported desolate and frequently break into a chatter which can be interpreted as "Hey! What happened to human beings?" Elephants look about sadly for somebody with a bag of peanuts. If it is true an elephant never forgets, will any zoo striker be safe anywhere near them from now on?

"I Wonder Who'll Be Here Last?"

Inside Labor By Victor Riesel

This classless society of ours is being "brain - machined" into a cashless society. We're not going broke. We're going in for "non-money." And at such a pace that one labor leader has sized up the credit card business as the next growth industry of the land. On Monday he formally launched his drive to unionize white collar workers at the Carte Blanche headquarters on Sunset Strip in Hollywood. In two weeks he'll start on the Diners Club in New York and soon on the far-flung American Express Agency.

Victor Riesel

Nor does Howard Coughlin, president of the Office Employes International Union and director of this newest of union campaigns, expect President Kennedy's anti-expense account tax drive to restrict the credit card industry. The "non-money" economy is nearer than we think, says Coughlin.

Cash, checks and money orders are not yet bow-and-arrow stuff. But electronic credit certainly is closing in on them.

My own brain being what it is, I turned to my friend John Diebold, inventor of the word "automation," for corroboration.

Diebold said that "non-money" was upon us and pointed to the U.S. Steel Corp. This firm, with its 190,000 employees, said he, as well as other large manufacturers, compute their weekly payroll and make out checks through an electronic brain machine—the computor. But they now have quietly gone one step further.

THE "BRAIN" reckons the withholding tax and Social Security deductions of each worker. Then it puts all the financial information on a magnetic tape. This is automatically mailed to the Internal Revenue Service and the Social Security board.

There, whether the tape is IBM or Sperry's Univac, or any other make, it goes into a machine which strips it of all data and replaces the information on the government's own taped records.

At no time does any of this series of processes go through human hands. Financial transactions involved also are automatic.

But hold on. Soon even this tape will be as archaic as a Rudolph Valentino silent film. The information will be telephoned—by a company electronic brain machine — to a government machine.

The computor machine in the corporation's central office will be fed the withholding and Social Security data each quarter, for example.

This machine then will dial—by a series of impulses — the proper federal memory box.

If the governmental equipment is in use, it will by return impulse "ask" the incoming machine to wait. At the end of 10 minutes, or whatever time it takes, the reporting computor will automatically "dial" again.

THIS, IN EFFECT, will be the pattern of the electronic credit system. Howard Coughlin and many directors of the big computor manufacturing companies believe it will eliminate a tremendous number of cash transactions in the next decade.

Carte Blanche, for example, at 77 Sunset Strip, now operates in three shifts around the clock. Many of the employes are men operating tabulating machines, key punch machines and doing routine collection department chores.

So vast has this credit card thing become that on June 10 Carte Blanche will install a "tremendous" electronic brain which will make the firm one of the largest computor centers in the West.

Coughlin, who heads the nation's biggest and most successful white collar office - clerical union, says that the drive for the few thousand employes in the big three credit outfits is just the beginning.

"I might add," says Coughlin, "that the representatives of the large electronic business machine companies state that salaries for individuals will someday be paid into bank accounts and specially adapted credit cards will be used for all types of purchases."

With his eye on this vast white collar field, Coughlin just had his union file with the NLRB for a representation election at Carte Blanche in Hollywood.

In two weeks they'll go after the Diners Club. In 10 years, if Coughlin succeeds, there may be as many union people working on "non-money" as there are on steel.

Then someone will invent a credit card which permits you to pay cash.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Millions of people read your column and talk about it on buses, trains and planes. My 8-year-old quotes you, and so does my 92-year-old grandfather.

Our minister used your "Rules for Raising Children" as a basis for his sermon a few months ago. You could go down in history with Joan of Arc and Helen of Troy if you would do one simple thing. Say a good word for the American mother-in-law.

It is my personal opinion that the America mother-in-law is the most maligned, abused, ridiculed figure alive.

My mother-in-law is a grand person. I adore her. She never once has interfered or imposed herself on us. There must be millions of OTHER wonderful mothers-in-law.

Why don't you ask your readers to write and tell you about the good relationship? Then print the best letters. It would be a national service. — A HAPPY DAUGHTER-IN-LAW.

Deary Happy: I'll do better than that. I will send to the person who writes the best letter in praise of a mother-in-law a medal with an appropriate inscription.

Blubber Doll

Dear Ann: This decision is right in your lap. I'm a high school junior. My face wouldn't launch a thousand ships but I'm not bad looking. The truth is I'm about 22 pounds overweight.

All the fellows I know are friendly — and brotherly. But no dates. Yesterday one of the swellest guys I know said to me, half kidding, "You'd be a doll if you'd knock off some blubber." I decided right then and there to go on a diet.

The problem is my mother. According to her, if a fellow was the right kind he'd take me out no matter what I weighed. She says she's not going to let me make a nervous wreck out of myself from dieting.

How about this? Does Mama know best?—PUDGY.

Dear Pudgy: Mama usually knows best — but not in this case. I hear from more girls who are nervous because they haven't got dates than because they are dieting.

Go to a doctor and let him put you on a diet. You'll not only look better but you'll feel better. When a boy suggests that you shed some blubber — that's pretty frank talk, Toots.

Surgeon Searching

Dear Ann: I'm a girl, 20. I've had one year of business college and am fairly competent at office work. I am now employed by an insurance company.

Maybe you'll think I'm cracked but I've always dreamed of marring a doctor — particularly a surgeon. The odd thing is I've never dated a doctor, a med student or anyone who was even remotedly interested in the medical profession. I'm very long on law students and engineers.

Do you have any suggestions?—DREAMER.

Dear Dreamer: If you have an urge to merge with a surgeon why not get a job in a hospital, a clinic or in a physicians's office?

I ought to warn you that most physicians (particularly surgeons) are married. But perhaps you can snag an intern.

P.S.: Hang on to your job, Toots; interns work for love and experience.

Confidentially

TO HOPING: The material sounds like it just barely got through the mails. Don't put any faith in the junk. Your doctor is the best source of help.

From the Files

10 YEARS AGO — Jacqueline Greenamyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Greenamyer of Leetonia, won a blue ribbon at the horse show at Oak Grove School for Girls in Maine.

Setback For Freedom

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Writer Against JFK-Khrushchev Meeting

If President Kennedy holds a summit meeting with Nikita Khrushchev — now reliably reported to be planned — this will be construed throughout the Communist world as a sign of America's weakness rather than strength, especially in the wake of the administration's retreats in Laos and Cuba.

David Lawrence

It would be just as logical for Mr. Kennedy to meet with Fidel Castro. Both dictators have insulted a President of the United States. Both are guilty of mass murders and other international crimes.

It was just a year ago that Nikita Khrushchev — after having invited President Eisenhower to visit Russia — deliberately refused to meet with him when the heads of government assembled at Paris.

The Soviet premier then withdrew the invitation in an outburst of vituperative propaganda. He hurled such epithets as "thief" and "coward" at President Eisenhower.

The excuse given for all this was the overflight of a U2 plane which the Soviet government knew was but one of a series of such flights for the previous four years.

Also, though it was proper to lodge a diplomatic protest to the United States government, it was highly improper to make a personal attack on the man who happened to be the President of the United States.

This was an act of ingratitude which put the Soviet people in an unfortunate light for it was an insult to the very man who, as the commander in chief of the Allied Forces in Europe during Word War II, had helped to save the Russian people from being overrun by Hitler's armies.

If there had not been the successful invasion of North Africa and then of Southern Europe led by Gen. Eisenhower, the Nazi forces would have been free to pursue their invasion of Soviet trritory on the Eastern Front.

The U2 episode was a pertinent subject for debate in diplomatic channels. There is, for instance, no clear-cut understanding among international lawyers as to how high planes or "sputniks" may fly over a country without permission. Or is there any persuasive argument in international law against the privilege of a government to protect itself against surprise attack, especially when an adversary is conducting espionage and a cold war throughout the world.

It will be said, President Eisenhower did go to Geneva in 1955 to participate in a summit conference and was ready to go into another such meeting in 1960 in Paris.

The truth is that the futility of such conferences has been pointed out repeatedly by many observers, including this one, ever since such meetings were first suggested.

IT IS TO BE NOTED that former Vice President Nixon a few days ago, in a public coment, urged President Kennedy to meet with Nikita Khrushchev but this by no means takes away from the present occupant of the House the responsibility for participating in such a meeting.

It will be recalled that again and again President Kennedy has intimated — and his secretary of state, Dean Rusk, has spelled it out — that there ought to be no summit meetings unless some agreement has been previously achieved through diplomatic channels on important topics.

The argument has been that summit meetings are all right to ratify agreements or understandings already reached at a lower level of diplomacy.

Mr. Kennedy started out rightly with an emphasis on quiet diplomacy in the hope of achieving a better relationship with the Soviet government.

If, as is claimed, some progress has been made by that method, then it is logical to continue that course rather than indulge in spectacles like the summit conferences for Khrushchev's main purpose in such a meeting is to afford him a big opportunity for Soviet propaganda.

DOUBTLESS it will be broadcast throughout the Soviet Union that President Kennedy made good his offer of an apology publicized during the 1960 preconvention campaign.

There are two major forces in the world today that can affect the issue of peace or war. One is military — but this is being more and more decried as a form of suicide. The other is moral force.

The theory behind moral force is that, while it should never be the sole reliance of a nation, it should be used to the maximum before there is any resort to military power.

Primary in the use of moral force is the need for a repeated emphasis on the principles of human freedom. The United States is desirous of helping in every way to emancipate the Russian people and the other peoples behind the Iron Curtain so that some day they may rise up and establish a free government. The moment autocratic force of major proportions is eliminated, it becomes safe for arms to be reduced and democracy can thrive in the world.

TO KOWTOW now to Nikita Khrushchev, however, only serves to dishearten the peoples behind the Iron Curtain, especially in the enslaved states bordering the Soviet Union where some day the revolt will inevitably begin.

Whether the fateful day of liberation is many years away or nearer at hand is a matter of speculation but for President Kennedy to ignore the insulting behavior of Nikita Khrushchev and to meet with him in Austria or elsewhere cannot but set back and weaken the moral position of the democracies of the world.

Obnoxious Remarks

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Remarks a farmer gets tired of hearing:

"The government has decided it can't pay you next year for not growing corn. Is it okay, instead, if we pay you for not growing soybeans?"

"But Dad, I really want to go to Primburg Teachers' College. Why is it so important to you that I go to Vassar?"

"The farmers used to borrow from the banks. Now the banks are borrowing from the farmers."

"Daddy I found an old comic magazine in the attic full of jokes about the farmer's daughter and the hired hand. Just what is a hired hand?"

"Oh, you farmers are always hollering about something. You'd complain if they gave you the whole country on a silver platter."

"Frankly, I think it's time we legislators quit worrying so much about the farm vote. Where do most farmers live now, anyway? In the city!"

"Sorry, we just sold our last push-button plow. There's an old-fashioned hand plow in the back lot we can lend you—that is, if you know where to find a couple of horses to pull it. I haven't seen a horse in this neighborhood in years."

"Lemme see now. First we put the harness over his head, and strung it along his back—I think. Then we bent down and tightened a cinch here—or was it on the other side? To tell you the truth, it's been so long I kinda forget."

"I just saw a farmer down the road wearing overalls. What's going on? Are they making a movie about how life was in the old days?"

"Jed, it's a delicate matter and I hate to bring it up. But junior asked if I'd please tell you to quit calling him Bub. He says it's a hick word—and nobody uses it anymore."

"Don't forget we're going to the church social tonight. Can you stop by the bakery in town and pick out a nice cake? We're all supposed to bring something."

"I don't care how much better you like them, I'm not going to stand over any steaming stove this year putting up tomatoes. If frozen vegetables are good enough for city folk, you can learn to like them, too."

"The doctor phoned and said he's just too busy to make country calls on weekends. He said if the condition doesn't clear up by next Tuesday maybe you'd better go to the hospital, and he'll drop in to see you on Wednesday."

"The supermarket over at Greenville has raised the price of eggs five cents a dozen again. What do they think farmers are made of—money? Sometimes I wish we still kept our own chickens."

"Yeah, I know it's a bad drought. But it could be worse. What if a drought ever hit Washington, D.C.?"

One hundred sixty persons attended the mother-daughter party held recently in Bunker Hill Methodist Church. It was sponsored by the Woman's Society of Christian Service, with Mrs. Ralph Fotia serving as program chairman.

Men of the Methodist Men's Group served the dinner. Mrs. Harry Thomas gave the invocation, and Mrs. Robert Maurer gave the welcome.

The program was entitled, "Fun, Fashions and Frolics." Beginning with the 1880's, skits of various periods throughout the years were portrayed by fashions and songs of each era as well as a news item of national interest and a happening of that time concerning the church.

Mrs. William Ingold served as director and prompter. The script was written by Mrs. Chester Lucas and Mrs. William Dickey and narrated by Mrs. Frank Baird.

Modeling the fashions were Linda Maris, Nancy Hutcheson, Patty Hillis, Linda Tudor, Jeanine Cook, Linda Martig, Joanne Tudor, Cheryl Maurer, Norma Karlen, Eileen Conkle, Dorothea Handcock.

Soloists were Mrs. Gary Greenamyer, Mrs. Dickey and Miss Eleanor Lucas. A sextet was comprised of Miss Lucas, Mrs. Dickey, Mrs. Lucas, Mrs. Robert Biery, Mrs. Norman Summers and Mrs. Donald Baird.

Mrs. Willard Headland was pianist for the singers and also accompanied group singing which also was a part of the program.

"Quiet Music" for the devotions was provided by Mrs. Headland. Mrs. Graden Cook read the scripture and Mrs. Greenamyer was soloist.

A toast to mothers was given by Mrs. Kenneth Hutcheson. The response to daughters was made by Mrs. C. Ray Stanley. "What Is A Mother" was told by Mrs. Dickey.

A tribute was given to Mrs. Headland, mother with the smallest waist; to Mrs. Henry Kale and Mrs. Alfred Martig, grandmothers with the smallest feet; Mrs. Harry Camp, mother of the youngest baby; Mrs. Robert Maurer and Mrs. Clifford Beck, youngest grandmothers; and to Beth Ann Lucas, daughter under 14 years of age who travels the farthest distance to attend Sunday School.

Mrs. Fotia pronounced the benediction.

Emmies

best actress in a series, her beige dress caught on her coat.

She finally tossed away her coat and walked up to the podium with a torn dress. There she thanked everybody connected with her show.

Later she confided to a newsman: "I wanted to say I was the first Emmy winner to ever have her show dropped."

Her anthology series has not been renewed for next year.

Raymond Burr, the defense attorney who never loses a case on the Perry Mason TV show, was named best actor in a series.

Fred Astaire, who has nearly as many Emmies as the television academy, won two more to make a total of 11 in his collection.

The veteran dancer seemed embarrassed to win again for outstanding performance in a variety show and outstanding variety program.

In other awards, the NBC news team of Chet Huntley and David Brinkley beat out President Kennedy's news conferences for best news program.

The President and former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, however, did get a special Emmy for "the great debates." Neither showed to accept the award.

Bob Hope suffered what was probably the biggest disappointment of the night.

Hope, nominated for the first time in his 25 years of stardom on talent alone, lost out in the humor category to Jack Benny, who has won before.

Benny, a pallbearer at Gary Cooper's funeral Tuesday, didn't show up to accept his award. It was accepted by Irving Fein, executive producer of the Benny show.

Hope quipped that he should move from the San Fernando Valley to Beverly Hills—where all the votes are concentrated.

3 Other Street Projects

Council also received estimates on three street widening projects which will be considered when adequate legislation is drawn up. The projects and their estimated costs are:

Widening N. Ellsworth Ave. on the west side from W. State St. north a distance of 190 feet for an estimated maximum width of three feet, $1,004.50.

Objects To Ball Field

A E. 6th St. resident attended last night's session and complained of the recent construction of a ball diamond 10 feet off his property line but on high school property. The resident said he and numerous other home owners objected highly to the new sports facility because it invaded the privacy of their backyards in what was to be a residential area.

Council members said they were in sympathy with the residents of the area but the situation was out of their control since it was entirely a School Board decision to build the ball diamond on school property.

Kennedy

strolled between the two ranks of Canadians who lined the route across the street to the east block of the Parliament Center. The crowd of civil servants and Ottawa citizens—mostly made up of enthusiastically applauding women—gave the visitor a warm reception, as he accompanied the prime minister to his office for their discussions.

Those talks this morning and Kennedy's address to Parliament this afternoon formed the main business of the only full day of his state visit to this capital of the United States' oldest ally in the Western Hemisphere.

Good fellowship abounded on the arrival of the President and First Lady Tuesday on their first trip outside the United States since his inauguration.

Pledges of continued cooperation were exchanged at the airport reception in which Diefenbaker and Governor General George Vanier warmly greeted the U.S. visitors.

The warm friendliness continued at a state dinner and reception given by the governor general and Mrs. Vanier and an earlier tree-planting on the rich green lawn of their residence, Government House.

Differences between the two governments will show up today when the President and prime minister get down to business. The conflicts are slight in comparison with those dividing the free and Communist worlds, but they affect the unity of the Western Hemisphere.

Knowledgeable sources said Kennedy would encourage Diefenbaker to join in financial assistance to the impoverished peoples of Latin America. Both officials have declared the best way to banish communism from the Americas is to improve the standard of living of its population.

The United States already has launched a $500 million program of aid, keyed to adjusting social and economic systems of Latin-American lands to the needs of their people.

Canada's assistance to those nations has been small. Its efforts have been directed primarily toward Asia—India, for example — and to a lesser extent toward Africa. It was understood that Diefenbaker would rather continue to devote the bulk of what aid Canada is able to render to those areas where its helping hand is now recognized.

Man Keeps Body Of Mother Hidden To Fulfill Promise

WARREN, Ohio (AP)—Ten days ago an 81-year-old woman died, but her son kept the body hidden in their home until he could save enough money to bury his mother near Newark, N. J., authorities reported today.

Trumbull County sheriff's deputies discovered the body of Mrs. Lydia A. Peterson Tuesday on the first floor of the dwelling on the southeast side of the city. A pink bedspread covered the body.

"Before she died I told her I would bury her back east beside her mother," Floyd Peterson, 48, a janitor, told deputies. "I didn't tell anyone about the death because I wanted to save enough money to fulfill the promise."

Deputies investigated after neighbors reported not having seen the woman for several weeks. They said they searched the house under pretense of making a tax survey. Dr. Joseph Sudimack, coroner, said the woman suffered a heart attack 10 days ago.

Peterson said his mother's half-sister identified as Rose Rosecrance, lives in Newark. Arrangements are incomplete.

national machinery to insure the cease-fire and charged that the Communist led Pathet Lao is repeatedly violating it.

The meeting was told that a new report from the Canadian-Indian-Polish control commission had been received. A British spokesman said it confirmed that "some sporadic fighting is continuing." But he said it was not insignificant.

Rusk said the fighting must be stopped "as a matter of first importance, and "proper instructions" must be issued to the control commission so it can get out in the field to observe the truce.

"Information from Laos indicates that rebel forces continue to attack in a number of localities and that rebel troop movements are occurring which are prejudicial to an effective cease-fire," Rusk said.

After considerable diplomatic dickering, the conference finally opened Tuesday on the basis of a report from the control commission that in general fighting had ceased between the Pathet Lao and the pro-Western royal Laotian forces of Premier Boun Oum.

Reach Surprise Compromise

Rusk made his charges as news dispatches from Laos said royal government and rebel delegates reached a surprise compromise agreement to form a coalition government and set up a joint military committee to police the truce. But protracted negotiations are likely to be required before first the government and then the military group are actually formed.

The parked car was owned by John Francis Gallagher of 379 Sharp Ave.

Chamber Speaker

Richard Baily

Richard L. Baily, district manager in the Northern Central Division of the United States Chamber of Commerce, will be guest speaker at the Salem Area Chamber of Commerce luncheon meeting Monday noon in the Lape Hotel.

'Possum On Road Indirect Cause Of 2-Car Crash

A 25-year-old Canton motorist received minor injuries in one of two traffic mishaps on area highways Tuesday night.

Lewis Goodwin was treated by a physician for lacerations of the lip and nose injuries following a two-car collision on Rt. 164, one-quarter of a mile south of Rt. 7, at 11:30 p.m.

Highway patrolmen said the mishap occurred when Barbara Rohrer, 17, of Columbiana, stopped her southwest bound car for an opossum in the road and her auto was struck in the rear by Goodwin's car. Extensive damage was caused to both vehicles, patrolmen said.

In the other mishap, moderate damage was sustained by a westbound car operated by David Martin Uhring, 38, of Youngstown, when the driver failed to negotiate a curve on Rt. 14A, one mile west of Washingtonville, at 9:45 p.m., causing the car to go off the right side of the road and turn over in a ditch.

tire country.

The U.S. charge d'affaires, Marshall Green, reitereated his opposition—as the chief U.S. diplomatic representative in the country—to the overthrow of the elected government. But he added: "It will be a matter the Koreans, of course, will have to and will decide."

U.S. officials in Washington refused to comment until the situation in Korea clarified.

Seoul newspapers reported the rebel junta had instructed the foreign ministry to order all diplomatic missions aboard to inform foreign governments there would be no change in South Korea's pro-American foreign policy. The junta had said one reason it moved against Premier Chang was because his government had not been vigorous enough in its anti-communism.

Gen. Chang conferred with President Yun Po-sun, who rapidly was discarding the figurehead role allotted the president by the post-Syngman Rhee constitution. The President appeared trying reconcile the rebel leaders and the nation's politicians.

Green also met for three hours late Tuesday with President Yun. Apparently the embassy had made no direct contact wth Gen. Chang or his aides.

Seoul was quiet with most stores open. Banks and school's also reopened.

Plans Advanced For Bargain Days Parade June 10

Further plans for the parade to be held June 10 at 10 a.m., in conjunction with the "old-fashioned bargain days," were made when the committee met recently with parade marshal John Herman.

The Salem Retail Merchants Association is sponsoring the "old-fashion bargain days" event to be held June 8, 9 and 10.

The committee, comprised of Glenn Oliver, chairman, Val Galleti, Horace Schwartz and Art Stone, formulated the entries for the parade.

First, second and third place trophies will be awarded to the best marching band, and to the oldest vehicles in the best condition (automobiles, bicycles, wagons, etc.). Trophies will also be given to the best dressed man, woman or child.

Entries in the parade must be made on the official entry blanks or applications may be made at the Chamber of Commerce office, with June 3 as the deadline.

The lanes will be in opration from 2:30 to 8 p.m. daily and will be manned by UCT members, girl and boy scouts, the Rod Angels and mechanics furnished by local garages. William M. Schaeffer is general chairman.

Items to be checked include brakes, front lights, rear lights, steering, tires, exhaust system, glass, windshield wipers, rear-view mirror and horn. The Doctor Says

By DR. H. T. HYMAN

Ways to Curb Heart Damage

I wish there were some way of making preventive medicine dramatic, newsworthy and photogenic.

Without wishing to detract in any way from the accomplishments of heart surgery, for example, I'd like to discover some method for publicizing the painstaking and laborious efforts of those who devote their skills and energies to the elimination of those factors responsible for much of the cardiac damage whose operative correction is so impressive to feature writers and cameramen and women.

Dr. H. T. Hyman

TAKE, FOR ILLUSTRATION, a recent report by Drs. J. S. Shaffer and W. B. Thompson of the University of Oklahoma. Without fanfare, this pair of investigators took throat cultures from all first grade children after they returned to school following an upper respiratory infection. Of 300 convalescent youngsters, or just over half of the entire group, 173 harbored the beta hemolytic streptococcus responsible for rheumatic fever and rheumatic heart disease.

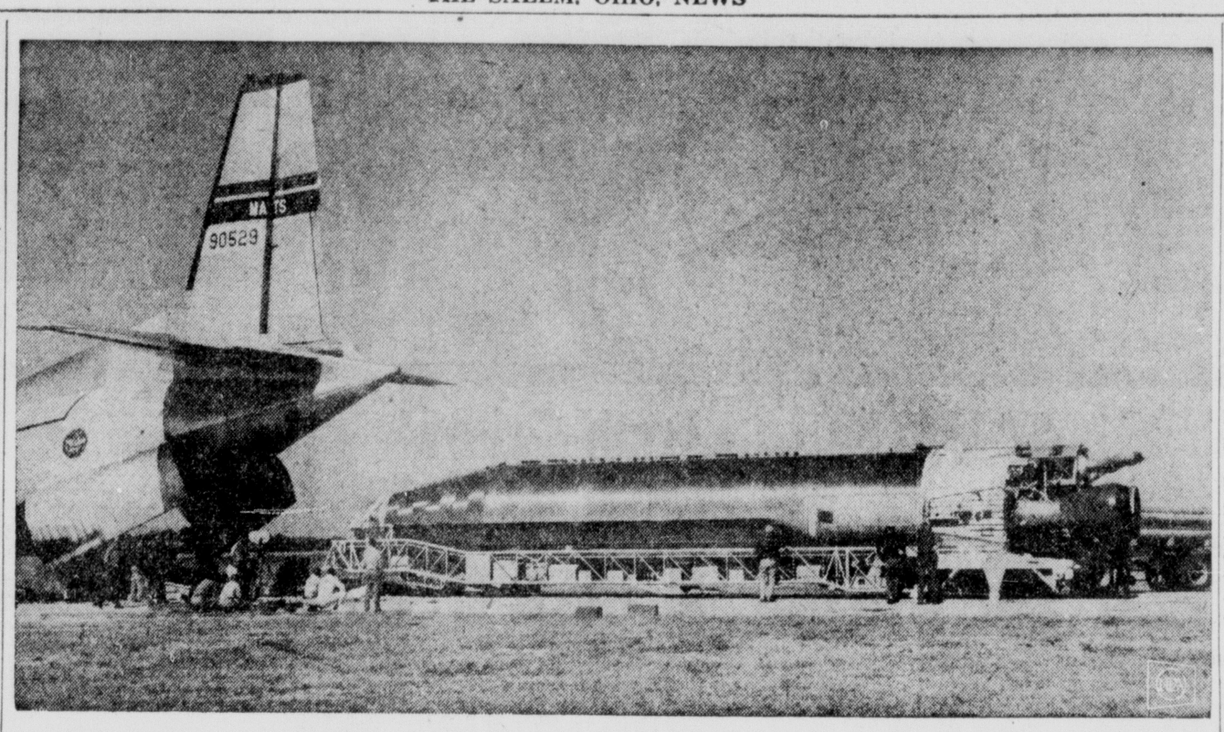

Now while it takes more than the presence of the hemolytic strep to produce rheumatic fever, statistical studies indicate that all the necessary ingredients are present in 3 or 4 per cent of children who are the innocent "carriers" of this dread organism. On this basis, at least five or six of the 173 carriers might be expected to progress to the stages of rheumatic fever and rheumatic heart disease.

By recommending a single deposit of long acting penicillin (1.2 million units of benzathene penicillin, administered by the family physician, streptococci were eliminated from nose and throat cultures. And not a single child developed any manifestation that was even remotely suggestive of rheumatic fever or rheumatic heart disease.

FOR THOSE CHILDREN who exhibited sensitivity to penicillin and-or who were needle-shy, a 10-day course of one of the many brands of tetracycline proved equally effective. Not so, however, the various sulfas that were more apt to produce undesirable side reactions despite their lesser effectiveness.

Try to imagine the extent of the benefits that could be derived if this tiny example of co-operation between school physicians, parents and family doctors was repeated on a country-wide scale.

Maybe you can think of a way to make this accomplishment as newsworthy and photogenic as the restoration to health of a single "blue baby" whose well-wishers have made up a purse to have the youngster flown from some distant community to a justly famous cardiac surgeon.

GIANT AT REST — Its polished stainless steel skin gleaming in the Florida sun, an Atlas rocket is unloaded from a transport plane at Cape Canaveral. Although developed primarily as this nation's first intercontinental ballistic missile, Atlas will boost the Mercury capsule when the first U.S. astronaut goes into orbit around the earth.

Columbiana Captures Class 'A' District Track Title

Clippers Qualify 7 for State Meet

Springfield Local Edges Braceville For 2nd; Bob Pratt Most Valuable

By DICK BRAUTIGAM

Columbiana's Clippers, the team which copped the Columbiana County Class A crown last Friday, added the district title to their laurels last night at Salem's Reilly Stadium.

The Clippers racked up 30 points to defeat 29 other schools from Columbiana, Mahoning, Portage, Trumbull and Stark Counties. Mahoning County champion Springfield Local beat out Trumbull County kingpin Braceville on the final event to take second place. Springfield wound up with 23 3-5 points while Braceville had 23 1-5. The Greenford Bobcats were fourth with 17 1-5 markers.

Eight of the 30 teams entered failed to break into the scoring column. They were Atwater, Aurora, Cortland, Randolph, Jackson-Milton, Northwest, Lisbon and Western Reserve.

The meet was scored on a 6-4-3-2-1 basis with the top four qualifiers earning the right to compete in the state meet at Columbus the week after next.

COACH WALDO WARD'S Columbiana crew qualified a total of seven men for the state meet in six different events. Making the trip to Columbus will be Dale Murphy in the shot and discus, brother Paul Murphy in the 220, Randy Miller in the low hurdles, Jim Ward in the broad jump, Don Williamson in the discus, and the half mile relay team of Dave Garrod, Ward, Rich Kyser and Paul Murphy.

Coach Ray Russell's United Eagles will be represented in Columbus by five men. They are Paul DeVille in the 440, Bill Leatherberry in the high jump, and the mile relay team of DeVille, Bruce Hoyt, Gary Milliken and Don Mayer.

Greenford's two fine hurdlers, Dave Tyo and Kenny Wellendorf both qualified in the highs and lows. Petrila of Coach Harry Frankland's Bobcats also will compete at Columbus in the pole vault.

FAIRFIELD-Waterford qualified Tom Messenger in the 440 and Gary Slaven in the broad jump. North Lima will be represented by its mile and a half mile relay teams and Weaver in the 880.

Springfield Local qualified its mile relay team, Dick Bretz in the 440, Jim Schaade in the pole vault and Wilson in the mile.

WINNING THE MOST valuable player award last night was talented Bob Pratt of Lowellville who was the top scorer with 13 points, the entire output for his team. The junior, who is also a football and basketball star, was the only double winner in the meet with firsts in both the 100 and 220-yard dashes. Pratt picked up his other point on a fifth in the discus.

Coach Ward's Columbiana crew took over the lead on the fifth event, the broad jump, and never gave it up. The Clippers picked up four points in the broad jump when the coach's son, Jim Ward, placed second to North Bloomfield's Mike Davis who went 19-3¾. Ward, who is only a freshman, was voted the most valuable Class A performer in the Columbiana County meet on Friday.

THE VICTORY for Columbiana could be classified as a mild upset. The young Clippers had proved they were strong but they had been expected to battle it out with Springfield Local for second place behind Braceville.

Braceville did have its share of tough luck yesterday. Dennis Steele, who owns the best mark in the district in the pole vault, was injured recently and did not compete in the district meet. Bill Nye, the Bees' top miler, who also has the best district mark this season in that event, fell during the race and finished fifth.

BILL HUGHES of Braceville who has run a 9-9 hundred and a 22.9 220 wasn't nearly that fast yesterday and finished second to Pratt in both events. The Lowellville flash copped the 100 in 10.4 and the 220 in 23.3.

Columbiana's Ward got a fifth in the 100, just missing the fourth spot which would have qualified him for state. In the 220, Paul Murphy of the Clippers got a third and Gary Slaven of Coach Bing Newton's Fairfield-Waterford team placed fifth.

Greenford's Kenny Wellendorf won the low hurdles in 22.3. Teammate Dave Tyo, only a sophomore, placed fourth in the lows and second in the highs. Wellendorf took a third in the highs which were won by Warren Hill of Lake in a not too speedy 16.9.

Fairfield's Mike Pahanish grabbed a fifth in the high hurdles and Leetonia's Bob Gullett took fifth in the lows. Randy Miller of Columbiana qualified for state with a third in the lows.

Lee Wilson picked up one of Springfield Local's four firsts when he captured the mile in 4:39.3.

DICK BRETZ of Springfield repeated his victory of last year in the 440-yard dash. His time was 52.1. Hughes of Braceville finished second in the 440, the same place he wound up in the 100 and 220.

Coach Ray Russell's ace 440 man, Paul DeVille, placed third in that event yesterday, one place ahead of Tom Messenger of Fairfield-Waterford.

A tremendous anchor leg by Paul Murphy assured Columbiana's victory in the 880 relay. The winning time was 1:36.7.

Springfield's fast-stepping Dick Bretz pulled around United's Don Mayer in the anchor leg of the mile relay to nose out the Eagles for first place in that event. The winning time was 3:39.2.

Pat Rudge of Champion won the 880 in 2:06.2.

Columbiana's Don Williamson and Dale Murphy placed second and third, respectively, behind Bruce Shackelford of Rootstown in the discus. Shackelford got the platter out 137-3¼.

-:-

DALE MURPHY was more successful in the shot put. The sophomore tossed the iron ball 47-2¾ to beat out Joe Gaither of Sebring who took second place on his throw of 46-1½.

The winning marks in the high jump and pole vault weren't too impressive. Carl Newhouse of McDonald copped the high jump at 5-7½ while Fred Mehling of Rootstown and Jim Schaade of Springfield tied for the top spot in the pole vault at 9-10.

Bill Leatherberry of United qualified for state when he tied for second in the high jump. Mike Burgess of Leetonia was involved in a five-way tie for fourth in the high jump but did not qualify for state. Kline of Garfield had the least number of misses of the five men tied for fourth and this gave him the state meet berth.

THERE WAS a five-way tie for third in the pole vault with Minter of Windham and Petrila of Greenford earning the Columbus trip on the least number of misses. Dolsak of McDonald had the same number of misses as Minter and Petrila but he lost his trip to Columbus on the flip of a coin.

There were no records set yesterday. Approximately a thousand fans attended the evening session, despite the chilly weather. A total of 367 athletes took part.

Meet Manager Fred Cope and his crew kept the events right on schedule. Other top officials included Dave Williams, referee; John Russ, starter, Ralph Zimmerman, clerk of course; H. C. Wagner, head finish judge; H. Larry Brown, head track inspector; Mike Schuller, head timer; Lowell Allen, head judge pole vault and broad jump; Ray Sweeney, head judge high jump; John Cabas, head judge shot and discus; and Ray Reasbeck, announcer.

Diane Dawson and Beverly Caudill, Salem Senior High School students, handed out the awards.

Here are results of the meet:

Wilhelm Paces AL Pitchers

McCormick Leads NL With 1.54 Mark

By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Mike McCormick of San Francisco and Hoyt Wilhelm of Baltimore, each a previous major league earned run champion, have taken the leads in this year's competition.

Through Monday's games, McCormick, the young southpaw, topped the National League with a 1.32 average while Wilhelm, veteran right-hander, paced the American with 1.54.

McCormick, last season' NL titleholder, has given up only six earned runs in 41 innings, figures compiled by The Associated Press showed. He has won his last four games after dropping his first and has yielded only one earned run in his last 18 innings.

Wilhelm is seeking his third ERA crown. He was the National League leader in 1952 while with the New York Giants and the American League kingpin in 1959 with the Orioles. He has worked 35 innings this year, all in relief, and allowed only six earned runs. The knuckleball pitcher has a 4-1 record.

Bill Monbouquette of Boston, who fanned 17 Washington players in beating the Senators 2-1 last Friday, is the American League runner-up with a 2.36 mark. He is followed by Don Mossi of Detroit 2.39, Bob Shaw, Chicago 2.45 and Tom Sturdivant of Washington, 2.53. The leaders are based on 30 or more innings pitched.

Johnny Podres of the Los Angeles Dodgers is in second place in the National League with a 1.94 ERA. The left-hander dropped his first game Monday night after winning five in succession. He has yielded 11 earned runs in 51 innings.

Art Mahaffey of Philadelphia is third with 2.11. Then come Warren Spahn, Milwaukee 2.17, rookie Ken Hunt, Cincinnati 2.25, Bob Gibson, St. Louis 2.40 and Joey Jay, Cincinnati 2.65.

Tribe Rally Falls Short

Red Sox Climb on Hawkins, Reliefers for 8-7 Victory

BOSTON (AP) — Manager Jimmie Dykes of the Cleveland Indians was supplicating of late for his boys to start getting some runs to back the fine performances of the pitching staff. It was no sooner said than done.

After that 15-inning 1-0 cliffhanger last Sunday, the Indians have gotten 6, 13 and 7 runs, respectively, in their last three games.

But against the Red Sox Tuesday night, the pitching cracked, and the seven runs went down the drain. In beating Cleveland 8-7, Boston got 16 hits—two more than the total of its previous five games. Cleveland collected 15 safeties.

Cleveland used four hurlers, as did Boston. Wynn Hawkins started for the Tribe and took his second loss against three wins. He was succeeded by Bob Allen, Johnny Antonelli and Russ Heman. Heman, who came on in the eighth inning, was the only one who didn't give up a run.

Cleveland picked up a pair of runs off Ike Delock in the first inning on Johnny Temple's single and doubles by Tito Francona and Vic Power. Three singles loaded the bases for Boston in their first. Hawkins then walked in a run.

Boston scored twice in the second to go ahead 3-2. Frank Malzone hit a home run for the first tally. A single, a sacrifice and a double produced the second and chased Hawkins.

The Red Sox got single runs in the third and fourth off Allen. They added three in the sixth off Antonelli. Two singles and a forceout accounted for one run and Jim Pagliaroni's homer netted two more. That put Boston ahead 8-3.

Cleveland rallied in the eighth, scoring three runs. John Romano tripled and scored on Woodie Held's double. Don Dillard doubled, scoring Held. Temple poked a single to plate Dillard. When Jim Piersall walked and Chuck Essegian singled, Billy Muffett, third reliever of the inning, came out of Boston's bullpen and got Power for the third out.

The Indians made a last-gasp try in the ninth. Willie Kirkland and Phillips both doubled, accounting for a run. But Dillard grounded out to end the game.

The Indians play Boston tonight in the rubber game of the series. Bobby Locke (0-0) is slated to hurl against Boston's ace, Bill Monbouquette (2-3).

Giants Nip Cubs 2-1, Open 3-Game Lead

By The Associated Press

Jack Sanford pitched his first complete game in six starts for San Francisco Tuesday night, giving up six hits for a 2-1 victory over the Chicago Cubs that gave the Giants a three-game lead in the National League race.

Pittsburgh took over second place by beating St. Louis 2-1 while Milwaukee dropped Los Angeles to fourth place by defeating the Dodgers 5-3. Cincinnati defeated Philadelphia 4-2.

Sanford (2-3) walked none and struck out five. Orlando Cepeda, with three of the Giants' hits off loser Dick Drott (0-1) and reliever Don Elston, tied it with a single in the fourth. He singled and scored the winning run on Hobie Landrith's single in the sixth.

The Braves beat Dodger southpaw Sandy Koufax (3-2) on a three-rum homer by Frank Bolling that made it 5-0 in the fourth inning. Don Nottebart (2-2) and reliever Moe Drabowsky held the Dodgers to four hits.

A sixth-inning home run by Dick Stuart broke a 1-1 tie for the Pirates against Cardinal lefty Curt Simmons (1-3. Vern Law, out since April 29 because of shoulder trouble, gave way to a pinch-hitter after shutting out the Cards on four hits for five innings. Elroy Face (2-1) then came on and won it.

Gene Freese, whose error helped the Phils get a 2-0 lead in the second inning, brought the Reds from behind with a three-run homer in the fourth at Philadelphia off Frank Sullivan (1-4). Joey Jay (3-3) won his third in a row.

Softball Season To Open Tonight

The 1961 Salem softball season is scheduled to get under way tonight at Kelley Park when the Class AA boys swing into action.

Industrial Mining is pitted against Shaffer Ford at 6:45; Stepanic's Tavern will face Herron Transfer at 8; and Deming's will tangle with Old Dutch at 9.

Baltimore Joins New Cage Circuit

NEW YORK (AP) — President Maurice Podoloff took stockof his National Basketball Association today and — even in the face of opposition from the upstart American Basketball League — liked what he saw.

"For the first time in a long while," Podoloff said, "there was absolutely no talk at our board of governors meeting of shifting franchises. Last season every team in the league made at least a little money and all are happy where they are."

Tuesday, Baltimore was accepted into the league for the 1962-63 season bringing the total teams to 10.

"But that isn't the end," said Podoloff. "We have a bid from San Francisco, too. My personal feelings are that eventually we will have three divisions spread across the country."

Chicago was awarded a franchise last January and will begin playing this fall.

"That's quite a bit of expanding in a short time," Podoloff pointed out. "So we figure we'll let matters stay where they are a while — sort of get a chance to shake the new alignment down."

The league now consists of Baltimore, Chicago, New York, Philadelphia, Syracuse, Boston, St. Louis, Detroit, Cincinnati and Los Angeles.

Quakers Place 5th at Canton Relays

Don Davidson Sets Record in Discus

Don Davidson set a new Salem High record in the discus when he hurled the platter 148 ft. 5 in. last night in the Canton Twilight Relays at Fawcett Stadium.

The All-Ohio football and basketball star erased the old Salem discus mark of 148 ft. 2 in. set in 1951 by Jay England.

Davidson and sophomore Bill Beery made up the Salem entry in the discus. Beery's heave measured 129-9¼ which when added to Davidson's total gave the Quakers a third place in the Relays.

Canton McKinley, which won the meet for the third straight year, set a new record in the discus. Paul Bailous, expected to be a contender for the state title, and Lou Harris combined talents in the discus for a mark of 290 ft. ¾ in. This erased the previous record of 289 ft. 11¾ in.

Alliance also placed ahead of the Quakers in the discus.

McKINLEY EDGED out Alliance and Akron North for the team title. McKinley compiled 35½ points, Alliance had 34 and Akron North 32. Massillon came in fourth with 23 points, followed by Salem in fifth with 15 markers. Then came Canton Lehman, 13½; Canton Central, 6; Canton Timken, ½; and Canton Lincoln, 0.

Warren Harding and Boardman were slated to compete but dropped out.

McKinley finished with four firsts and set three meet marks. The Bulldogs won the pole vault and set records in winning the discus, 480-yard shuttle relay and the three-mile medley.

DARKNESS SET IN before the meet was completed and since there were no lights, the pole vault was cut short. Several vaulters, including Salem's Rick Sulea, were still vaulting when it was decided to call the meet because of darkness and count the pole vault results as they stood when the meet was halted.

This gave McKinley a first place which actually won the meet for them, since their final margin of victory over Alliance was just 1½ points.

Two McKinley vaulters had cleared 11 ft. Salem's Fred Harsnman had gone out after making 10-0 but Sulea had cleared 11 ft. with plenty to spare and might have been able to make up the difference since he has gone over 12 ft.

McKinley was named winner of the vault with its combined total of 22 ft. Salem placed second at 21 ft. Massillon was third and Alliance fourth.

SALEM'S SHOT PUT team of Ron Janovec and Fred Kaiser placed second to Alliance who had a combined total of 95 ft. 8⅞ in. Janovec, who because of a pulled leg muscle walked across the shot circle instead of using the usual hop, still managed to get off a toss of 49 ft. 4 in. Fred Kaiser added 42 ft. 10⅛ in. to the team total.

Janovec did not compete in the running events.

Dave Edling and Dave Capel brought the Quakers a fifth in the broad jump. Edling went 18-4⅝ and Capel 17-7½.

The Quaker 880-yard relay team of Edling, Beery, Jake Evans and Capel also got a fifth with its time of 1:35.4.

The Salem three-mile relay team composed of Kenny Krause, Randy Strader, Gary Hasson and Don Vincent took a fourth place with a time of 14:32. Krause and Vincent each ran miles while Strader and Hasson ran the half mile legs.

Here are the winners in each event:

HIGH JUMP—1. Akron North (Erickson and Lucas), height 11 ft 2 inches.

BROAD JUMP — 1. Lehman (Deveny and Gordon), distance 39 ft. 5⅝ inches.

DISCUS—1. McKinley (Harris, Bailous), distance 290 ft. ¾ inches. New record.

POLE VAULT — 1. McKinley (Rice and Woolley), height 22 feet.

SHOT PUT—Alliance (Davidson and Fraccio), distance 95 ft. 8⅞ inches.

480-YARD SHUTTLE RELAY—1. McKinley (Hale, Smith, Jackson, Stokes), time 57.6s.

440-YARD SPRINT RELAY—1. Alliance (King, Wilson, Hill and Hawthorne), time 43.9s.

3-MILE MEDLEY RELAY — 1. McKinley (E. Averette, Thompson, D. Averette, Waltath). Time 13:04.3.

880-YARD SPRINT RELAY — 1. Alliance (Hawthorne, Longmire, Hill, Wilson), Time 1:32.2.

MILE RELAY—1. Akron North (Gill, Oliver, Stone, Thomas). Time 3.27.7.

Too Much Running Not for Sad Sam

After the San Francisco Giants' pitchers had turned in eight complete games in their first 21 starts Manager Alvin Dark was asked to explain the reason for the string of start-to-finish successes in an era when the bull-pen men reign supreme.

The current issue of The Sporting News gives Dark's reply: "Constant running is a good part of the answer. If the legs hold up, so does the arm."

Then, the Giants' new manager laughed and told a story about Sam Jones. "I don't know how hold Sam is, 40 or 45, but he's old enough not to care too much for running," Dark said. "After a particularly tough workout this spring, Sam came puffing into the clubhouse and said to me, 'What am I supposed to do this year—wind up and RUN the ball across the plate?' "

Tigers Increase Lead to Four Games

Surprising Nats Deal Yanks Setback

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Washington's surprising Senators, allowing just 13 hits and five runs in five games, won their fourth in a row Tuesday night as southpaw Hal Woodeshick and reliever Dave Sisler checked the New York Yankees on two hits for a 3-2 decision. That pushed the Detroit Tigers, who won 10-4 at Baltimore, four games ahead of New York in the American League race.

The Chicago White Sox defeated Minnesota 5-4, Boston beat Cleveland 8-7 and Kansas City rapped the Los Angeles Angels 6-4.

The Yankees scored a run in the third inning on two walks, a wild pitch and an infield out, but didn't get a hit off Woodeshick until Mickey Mantle cracked his 10th home run with one out in the sixth. Their only other hit was an eighth-inning single by Bill Skowin the seventh and fanned pinch-hitter Yogi Berra with the bases loaded.

The Senators had 10 hits and scored all their runs in the third on consecutive singles by Danny O'Connell, Chuck Hinton, Jim King and Willie Tasby and a clinching sacrifice fly by Dale Long. Bill Stafford (0-1) was the loser.

Detroit scored 10 runs for the second night in a row at Baltimore, with this barrage backing right-hander Frank Lary for his 100th victory in the majors.

Steve Barber (4-3) was the loser, giving up a two-run homer by Rocky Colavito and a two-run triple by Bubba Morton in a decisive four-run fourth. Norm Cash also homered for Detroit.

Early Wynn (4-1) nailed his 288th victory with a two-out tie-breaking single for the White Sox in the eighth inning. Minnie Minoso's seventh inning home run had tied it 4-all for the Sox, who three times came from behind. Loser Pete Ramos (3-3) had three of the Twins' six hits, one a home run.

A single by Dick Howser gave the A's the winning run in the sixth inning against Eli Grba (3-4) while rookie Norm Bass blanked the Angels on four hits for eight innings. Jim Archer relieved in a four-run ninth, and saved it for Bass (2-1).

Boxer, 23, Dies Following Fight

Campbell Suffered Brain Injury

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Lightweight boxer Harry Campbell, 23-year-old former Olympic star who turned pro, died Tuesday night—24 hours after suffering a brain injury in a 10-round main event.

Campbell, who underwent surgery for a hemorrhage, never regained consciousness. An accumulation of hard, but not devastating punches was blamed for the injury. Campbell, a San Jose State sophJomore and member of the 1960 Olympic team collapsed in the Kezar Pavilion ring Monday night after losing a 10-round decision to Al Medrano, Sacramento, Calif.

Doug Hayden, San Francisco member of the state athletic commission, said he would start an investigation to determine whether any negligence was involved in Campbell's fatal injury.

Referee Verne Bybee said he was surprised to learn that Campbell had collapsed.

"I didn't realize he was badly hurt until after I was in the dressing room and they came in to get a stretcher," said Bybee.

The anxious Medrano accompanied Campbell to St. Luke's Hospital and awaited a report by Dr. Don Lastreto, physician for the California Athletic Commission.

Dr. Lastreto told newsmen after the fight he recalled no "real hard" punches but believed the injury came from an accumulation of blows.

OUT OF DOORS with Field & Stream

By RUFUS LIDE

Some people won't listen to facts in regard to the various laws which have been enacted under the revised code of the State of Ohio.

It is most peculiar when one will ask an enforcement officer about a law and it is then explained to the individual and he wants to give the officer an argument.

In this case the officer will let the person do as he pleases until the time comes for him to act when a law has been violated and the victim comes to realize that because he would not listen he has to "feel" the smack on his pocketbook at one of the county courts of jurisdiction.

I AM REFERRING specifically to the law that now permits motors of not more than 3.5 h.p. on Lake Guilford.

I have had people to give me the argument that 3.5 motors are practically obsolete and have been replaced with the 3.6 motors and such motors will be allowed on Guilford. I would like to state here and now if you try to get a permit for a 3.6 motor to be used on Guilford, the parks manager, Walter Burbick, will not issue and cannot issue such a permit as the laws are laws exactly as they read.

If you buy your permit some place else with intentions of using it at Guilford you are asking for trouble.

BOATERS LIVING in the East Liverpool-Wellsville area should stay out of the part of the Ohio River under Pennsylvania control. Your licenses and permits are not recognized by that state. Stay on the West Virginia and Kentucky waters and you are O.K.

At the same time we do not recognize Pennsylvania licenses in our waters. Residents of West Virginia and Kentucky can place their boats on any waters under Ohio control and leave them there for a period of three months. After then they must be removed.

The sudden rise in the water temperature which hit 64 degrees last Saturday activated the bass and spawning began in full force. Spawning bass do not pay any attention to the fishermen's lures with their gills full of romace.

LOCALLY, bullhead catfish, crappies, bluegills, sunfish, carp and eastern chain pickerel are being taken along with an occasional bass. Bow hunters can get set as the carp will be in the shallows any day now either feeding or spawning.

One bow fisherman has taken over 200 carp from Berlin Reservoir and is still going after more.

If I can possibly find the time, my intentions are to set up a carp smoking outfit at Guilford as a demonstration to prove that carp are as delicious as any other smoked fish. More will be said about the time and place after arrangements have been completed.

NO BOOSTER MEETING

There will be no Salem Booster Club meeting this week, according to President Dick Loutzenhiser.

High Hurdles Run In 14.2

Three State Records Bettered Last Week

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A record-crashing state track - field meet is shaping up for Ohio's high school cinder stars May 26-27.

State standards in three events were bettered last week as the scholastic athletes responded to warmer weather and neared their peak in various relays.

Dan Hughes of Grandview whipped through the half-mile in 1:56.8 to eclipse the 1:56.9 set 16 years ago in the state meet by Canton McKinley's Steve Orfandes. Cincinnati Taft's 3:21.2 for the mile relay at the Miami University meet was under the 3:23.8 state record set last year by Cleveland East Tech. And Dayton Roosevelt's John Henderson ran the 120-yard high hurdles in 14.2 seconds, matching the mark of Marietta's Bob Fogle and two-tenths under the state record.

Five other new leaders popped up this week, in the listings made by Ed Chay of the Cleveland Plain Dealer.

They include Chuck Crawford of Dayton Roosevelt, :48.7 for the quarter-mile; Henry Weaver of Mansfield, :18.9 for the 180-yard low hurdles; Dave Evans of Akron South, 23'7¼" for the broad jump, and Jim Goings of Toledo Libbey and Perry Shazier of Hamilton Taft, 6-3 in the high jump.

The half-mile in the state meet could be a classic. Challenging Hughes are state cross - country champion Warren Hand of Dayton Roosevelt and John Kolovich of Cleveland St. Joseph with 1:58.2 clockings, and Bob Miller of Upper Arlington with 1:58.7.

Cincinnati Taft, in addition to bettering the mile relay record, matched Cleveland East Tech's state mark of 1:28.4 in the half-mile relay.

Other top performances of the year:

100-yard dash: Weaver, Mansfield, 9.8; Orr, Cleveland East Tech; Espy, Sandusky; Sugden, Akron Buchtel; Gordon, Canton McKinley, and Morrow, Cleveland Collinwood, all 9.9.

220-yard dash: Orr, 21.3; Sugden, 21.8; Waver, 21.9.

Mile run: Brose, Dayton Belmont, 4:23.2; Hand, 4:26.3; McCann, Cleveland St. Edward, 4:27.9.

Shot Put: Housteau, Youngstown Ursuline, 56-9; Johnson, Cincinnati Taft, 56-30 Duda, New Philadelphia, 54-10.

Discus: Bialous, Canton McKinley, 164-9½; Hartley, Covington, 164.4.

Pole vault: Scruggs, Sandusky, and Hord, Kenton, 13 ft.; Waddell, Marion, 12-10¼.

Beaver Local Loses Meet To Struthers

Despite a double victory in the 100 and 220-yard dashes by talented Mike Durbin, the Beaver Local track squad was snowed under, 89-20, by the strong Struthers Wildcats yesterday at Struthers.

Durbin won the 100 with a time of 10.4 and repeated in the 220 with his 24.2 clocking. Durbin, who has broad jumped 21 feet this year, failed to place in that event yesterday. George Smith of Struthers won the broad jump at 18-6¼. The Best Beaver mark in that event yesterday was the 17-5 turned in by Ronnie McLaughlin who placed third.

Jim Hall of the Beavers took third place in both the shot discus. Other Beaver Local points came on a third in the 440 by John Detchon, a third in the 880 by Mike Klembara, and a second in the high hurdles and a third in the lows by George Wilkinson.

Besides winning the broad jump for Struthers, Smith came through with a first in the 440 with his clocking of 52.7. Tony Matlack ran the half mile in 2:08 for the Wildcats.

Coach Jack O'Rourke of the Beavers did not make the trip with the team to Struthers yesterday. His wife gave birth to a new bouncing boy. The O'Rourke's now have three boys and a girl!

Wilt Chamberlain of the Philadelphia Warriors led the National Basketball Association in rebounds last season, averaging 27.2 per game.

The Pittsburgh Pirates opened the 1961 season without one rookie.

Greenford Dropped In Basketball

Springfield Adds United, West Branch to Grid Slate

Springfield Local has added West Branch and United Local to its 1961 football schedule in place of Columbiana and Bessemer, Pa., who appeared on the 1960 slate.

The Greenford Bobcats were dropped from the 1961-62 Springfield Local basketball schedule so that the Tigers could make room for home-and-home scheduling of the five other Turnpike Conference schools — United, West Branch, Warren St. Mary's, Canfield and Jackson-Milton.

Besides dropping two games with Greenford, the Tigers have also scratched one game each with Lowellville and McDonald in basketball. This makes room for second games with United, Canfield, West Branch and Jackson-Milton who faced the Tigers only once during the 1960-61 season.

Last season's Springfield Local cage squad had a 7-14 record while the football team posted a 1-7-1 mark.

I DON'T MISS ANYTHING!

Confidentially, the reason I'm always "in the know" on who is doing what when, where, how and why is that I read my newspaper regularly and very thoroughly!

Your quickest, easiest way to get the most complete and accurate knowledge of what is going on in the world (and out of it) is to follow the example of this little lady and read your newspaper thoroughly, thoughtfully. The latest happening across town . . . the momentous event across the world . . . the newest satellite circling high above it . . . you can "read all about it" at your own convenience, at any hour of the day or night, at your home, office or on the bus . . . in your newspaper!

County School Merger Aired

Franklin, Southern Districts Affected

LISBON — Columbiana County Board of Education members discussed a possible consolidation of the Franklin Local School District with Southern Local with three members of the Franklin Board of Education at the county board's meeting Tuesday night, but no action was taken.

Franklin School Board members attending the session were Edwin Jarrett of RD 1, Hanoverton, John Dangelo of RD 2, Salineville and John Kosko of Summitville.

Subjects covered were the feeling of Franklin Local residents toward the consolidation, estimated taxes, indebtedness and transfer procedures.

No action on the merger is anticipated for some time.

In another matter, Edward Copeland of Hanoverton RD, whose farm borders the United Local School District but lies within the Franklin Local School District, requested that his property be taken into the United Local District. The board is empowered to effect the transfer if the United Local Board approves. Copeland's children attend United Local School. No action was taken on the request.

In other business the county board adopted several history books for use by sophomore classes in the county system.

Mrs. Marilyn Solak, high school consultant, Richard Jones of Salineville, Supt. Dale Gates of United, Supt. George VanHorne of Beaver and Supt. Joseph Driscoll of Fairfield-Waterford selected the books.

Board president Donald Elliott of Rogers reported on a meeting of northeastern Ohio School boards which he attended in Kent May 5.

The board recommended that the child accident insurance plan for 1961-1962 be purchased from the Erlston Agency of Canton. Jack Mills of Guilford Lake is the local representative.

The board discussed the contract for Mrs. Solak, but took no action. Her contract doesn't expire till Aug. 1.

Supt. James L. McBride reported on letters received from State Representatives J. Warren Bettis and Clarence Wetzel and the Senate Education Committee. He said he sent a letter to Dr. Samuel Hicks of Ohio University, notifying him of the passage of the Southern Local bond issue. Dr. Hicks was leader of a survey made by Ohio University which suggested that Franklin Local merge with the Southern Local District.

Supt. McBride reported on the activities of Fred Lohman, attendance officer. Lohman made 26 home calls and 40 school calls during April and traveled 1,163 miles. McBride also read the monthly report of Hubert Lawrence, county school psychologist.

The board's next meeting will be June 20 at 8 p.m.
